

2018 4-H Canada Leadership Excellence Awards of Distinction (L.E.A.D.) Mentor

Ian Thompson

Executive-in-Residence at the Atlantic Canadian law firm Cox & Palmer

Community Engagement & Communications

Ian is Executive-in-Residence at the Atlantic Canadian law firm Cox & Palmer. In the past he has been an associate publisher at The Chronicle Herald, a deputy minister of economic development in Nova Scotia, a senior representative in Ottawa for Nova Scotia, owner of MT&L Public Affairs and a former vice-president external for Emera Inc. Ian is an accredited graduate of the Institute of Corporate Directors and has received an honorary degree from Dalhousie University. He has sat on numerous boards over his career and is currently the national chair for Cystic Fibrosis Canada.

L.E.A.D.

Leadership Excellence Awards of Distinction

