4-H Canada Board of Directors Nomination Form 2025

4-H Canada has played a significant role in the success of the 4-H program across the country for over 90 years. Incorporated in 1933, 4-H Canada was formed to: deliver national 4-H programs and services; provide a channel through which government, business and other organizations can support the 4-H program; facilitate liaison and exchange of information; serve as a medium through which the basic and fundamental principles of the 4-H program may be developed and maintained; and, lend support to programs and activities, compatible with the principles and goals of 4-H.

This nomination form is designed to provide the information needed to recommend individuals for election to the 4-H Canada Board of Directors. Please provide as much detail as you can as this form is an important source of information used in the election process. Please note, candidates may not self-nominate, and must be nominated by two (2) current voting members of 4-H Canada.

The term of office for successful candidates will commence with the Annual General Meeting which will be held virtually in July 16, 2025. Please note, you must be a member to vote in the election and AGM.

Thank you for your interest in the valuable work we do in providing positive youth development in Canada.

Deadline: Received via email no later than 4:00 p.m. (EDT) March 31, 2025

Roles and Responsibilities 4-H Canada Board of Directors

Board of Directors Governing Style

The Board's style in approaching its responsibilities will emphasize:

- An outward vision;
- Encouragement of diversity in viewpoints;
- Strategic leadership;
- Clear distinction and understanding of Board and staff roles;
- Collective rather than individual decision making; and
- A future focus.

More specifically, the Board will:

- Initiate and inspire innovative policies that lead world class performance in organizational positive youth development.
- Direct and engage 4-H Canada through the careful deliberation and establishment of broad organizational policies; these policies will address the desired results (Ends), the boundaries of prudence and ethical means (Executive Limitations), roles and responsibilities (Governance Policy) and the Board/Foundation/Chief Executive Officer relations.
- Enforce upon itself and its members the discipline needed to govern with excellence;
- Be accountable for competent, conscientious and effective accomplishment of its obligations as a body;
- Monitor and discuss their own process and performance while ensuring the continuity of its governance by continuing education and development; and
- Use the expertise of individual members to enhance the ability of these bodies to implement governance policies.

Duties of the Board

The Board of Directors is the legal authority for the Canadian 4-H Council and is responsible for directing and protecting the organization and the owners' interests by:

- Providing direction to the organization, including a strategic plan;
- Establishing written governance policies;
- Assuring effective Chief Executive Officer performance;
- Communicating with the owners and stakeholders; and
- Making decisions in the best interests of the ownership as a whole and within the scope of organizational by-laws.

To achieve these outputs, the Board will:

- Establish the mission, vision, goals, objectives and strategies for the Council;
- Ensure regulatory compliance;
- Perform its role with due diligence and in the spirit of a positive youth development organization;
- Ensure adequate monitoring is in place to mitigate risk and accomplish goals;
- Ensure communications with stakeholders;
- Develop a strategic plan;
- Review, provide feedback and approve the written annual work plan and annual budget prepared by the Chief Executive Officer to operationalize the objectives of the strategic plan;
- Revisit the strategic plan at least every three years.
- Develop a work plan to review and update board policies at least annually.
- Approve appointment of a chair and vice chair of all board committees.
- Propose appropriate amendments to the Bylaws.
- Monitor performance, provide periodic feedback and conduct a formal, annual review of the Chief Executive Officer's performance; and
- Determine and review annually the Chief Executive Officer's remuneration, including salary and benefits.
